Okay, here we are at 666 A. Remember, we have a dead person in this house and one
male he's alive.

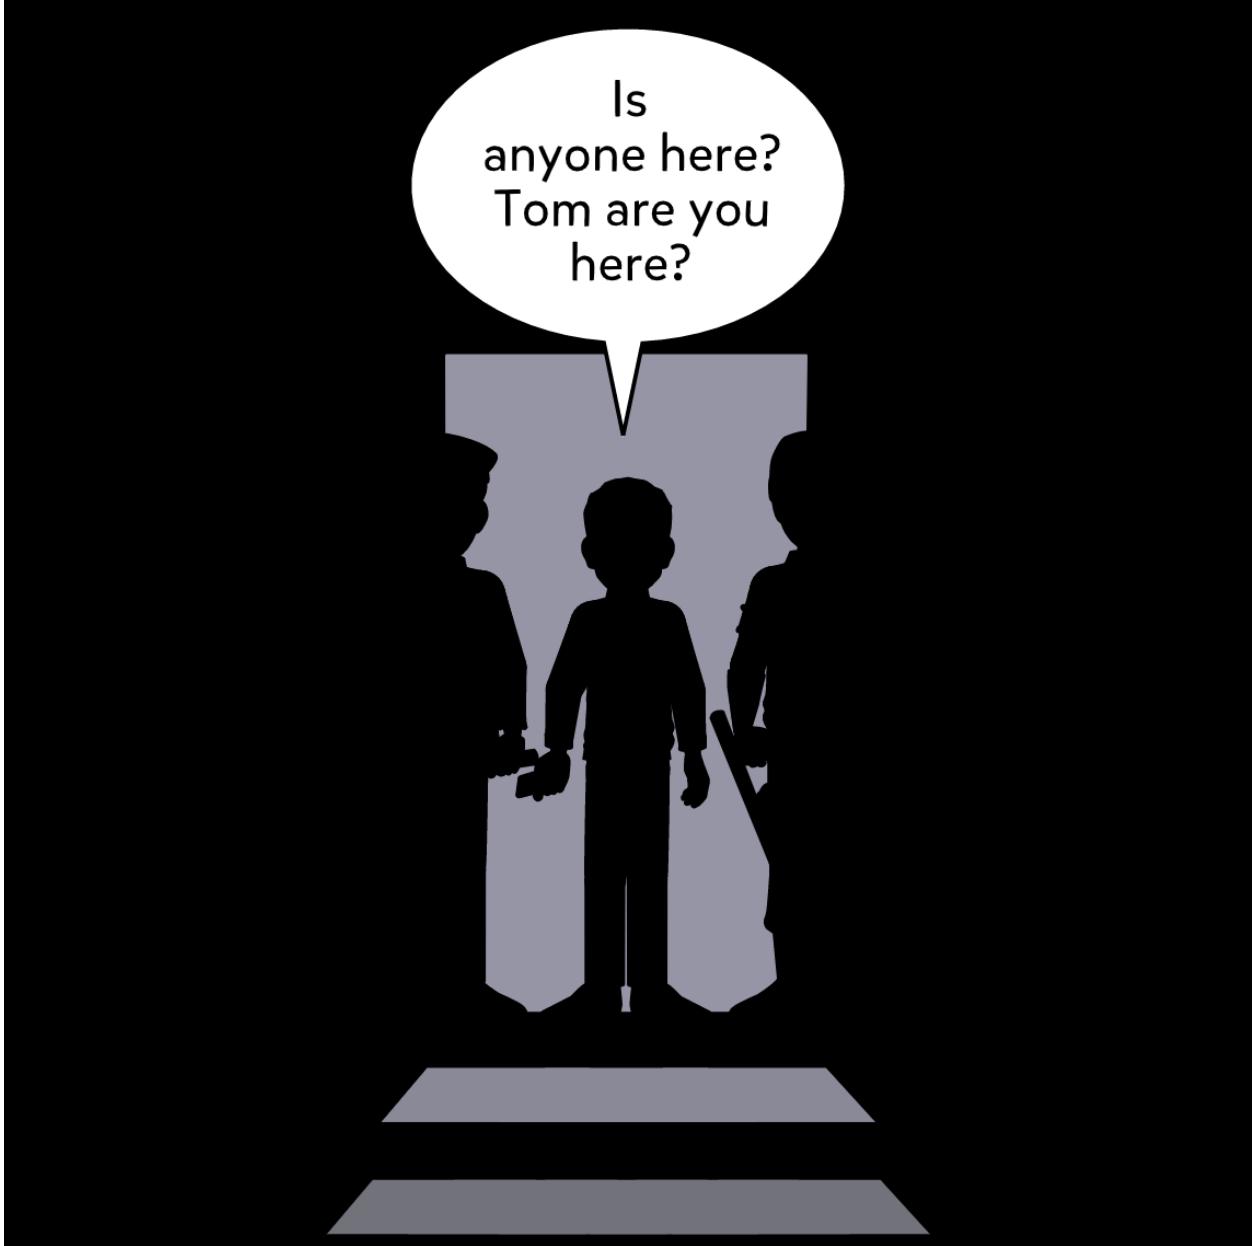

In case, we get code red then we need to use our guns and we cannot risk our lives.

No guns and moreover we don't have any suspect in this house.

Police entered into 666A

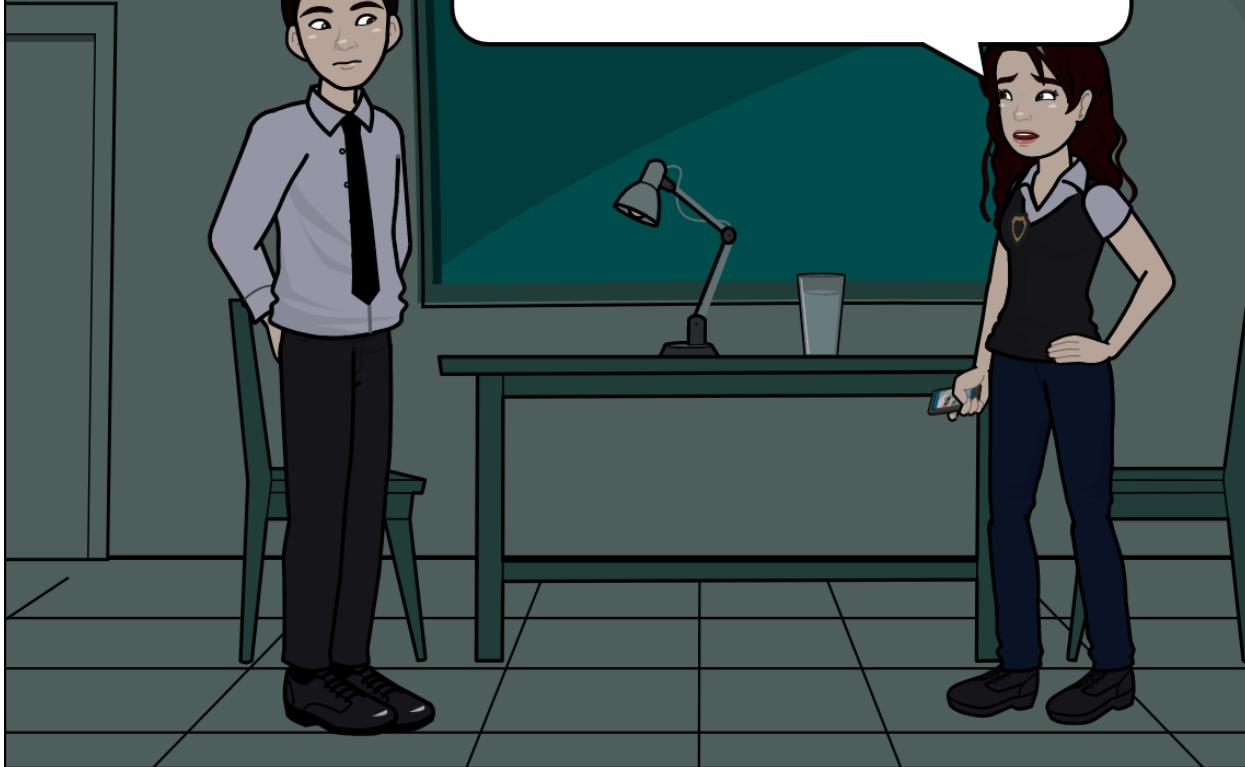

Is
anyone here?
Tom are you
here?

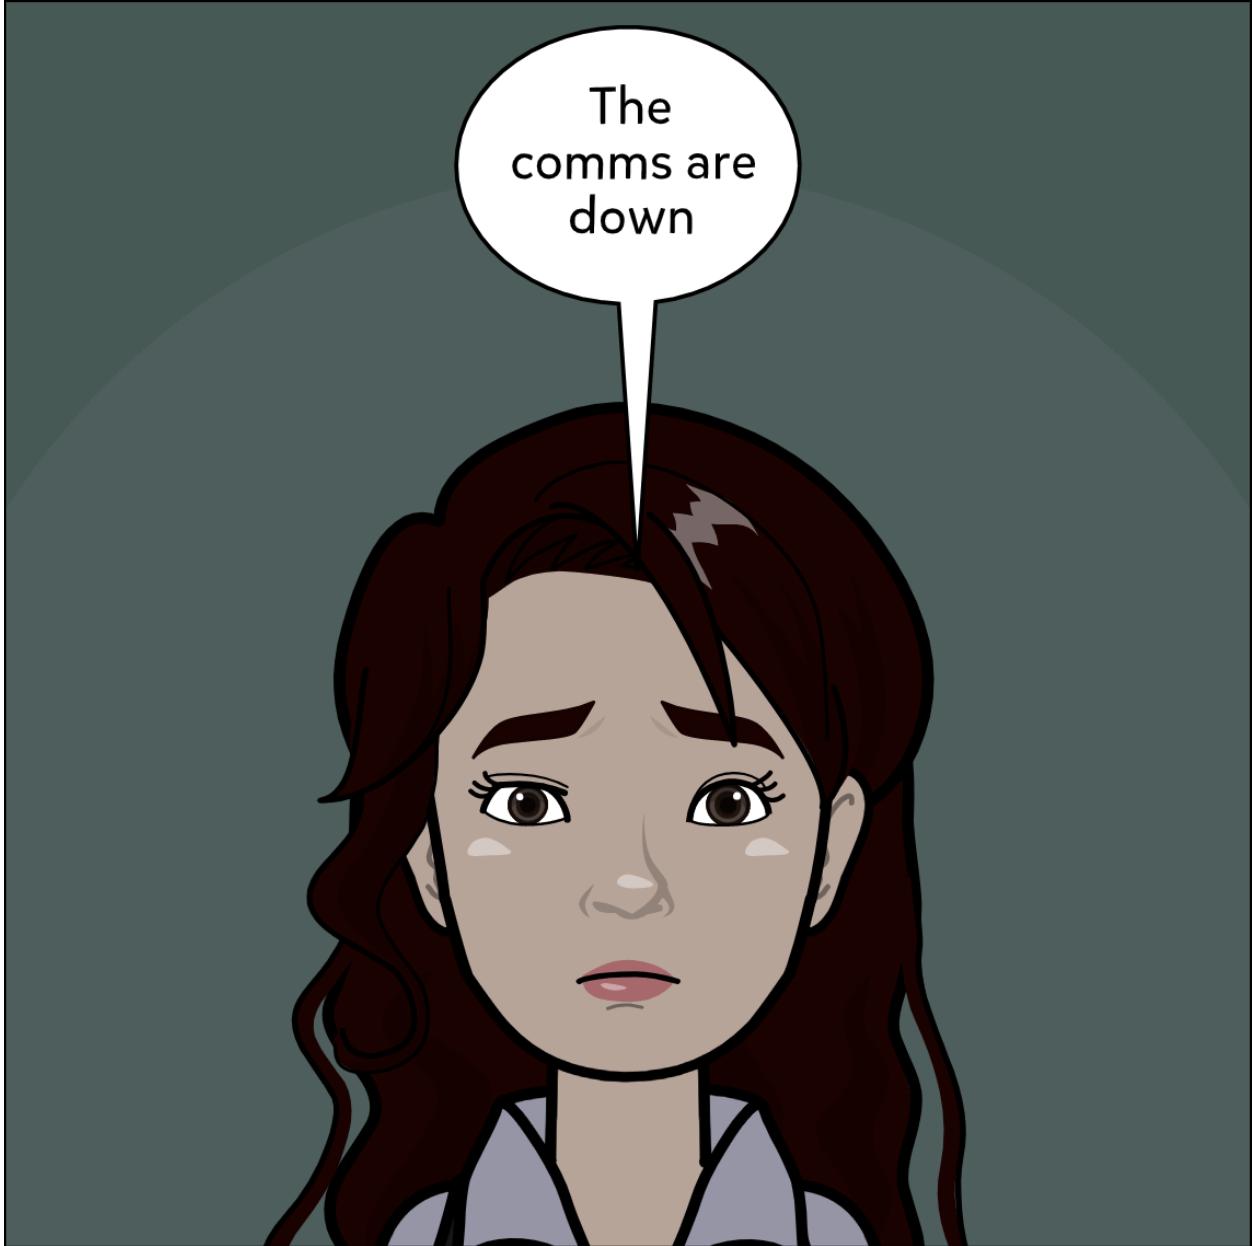

Okay
fine

Sir, please sit down. I need to ask you some questions and your clear answers will help us to find out what happened. Before that, I need to inform my team that you are here.

James,
do you copy?
James,
respond!

The
comms are down

Okay we need to find tom and we have to find the dead person in bedroom.
Okay who's going to the bedroom?

May be let's decide by playing stone, paper, scissor.. Would that going to work? God! I will go to the bedroom

Shhh! Do you see what I am seeing right now in the opposite room?

Rob,
that you?

I see someone
standing
there... Is that rob?

Turn
on the light

There's no trial in the room. No
blood strains, No
drugs, No physical assault scenarios...
It's clean..

That's
the dead
person

May be a heartattack

Her hands and legs are idle it doesn't show any twisted reactions. Moreover her mouth is idle and not opened. So it's not a heartattack.

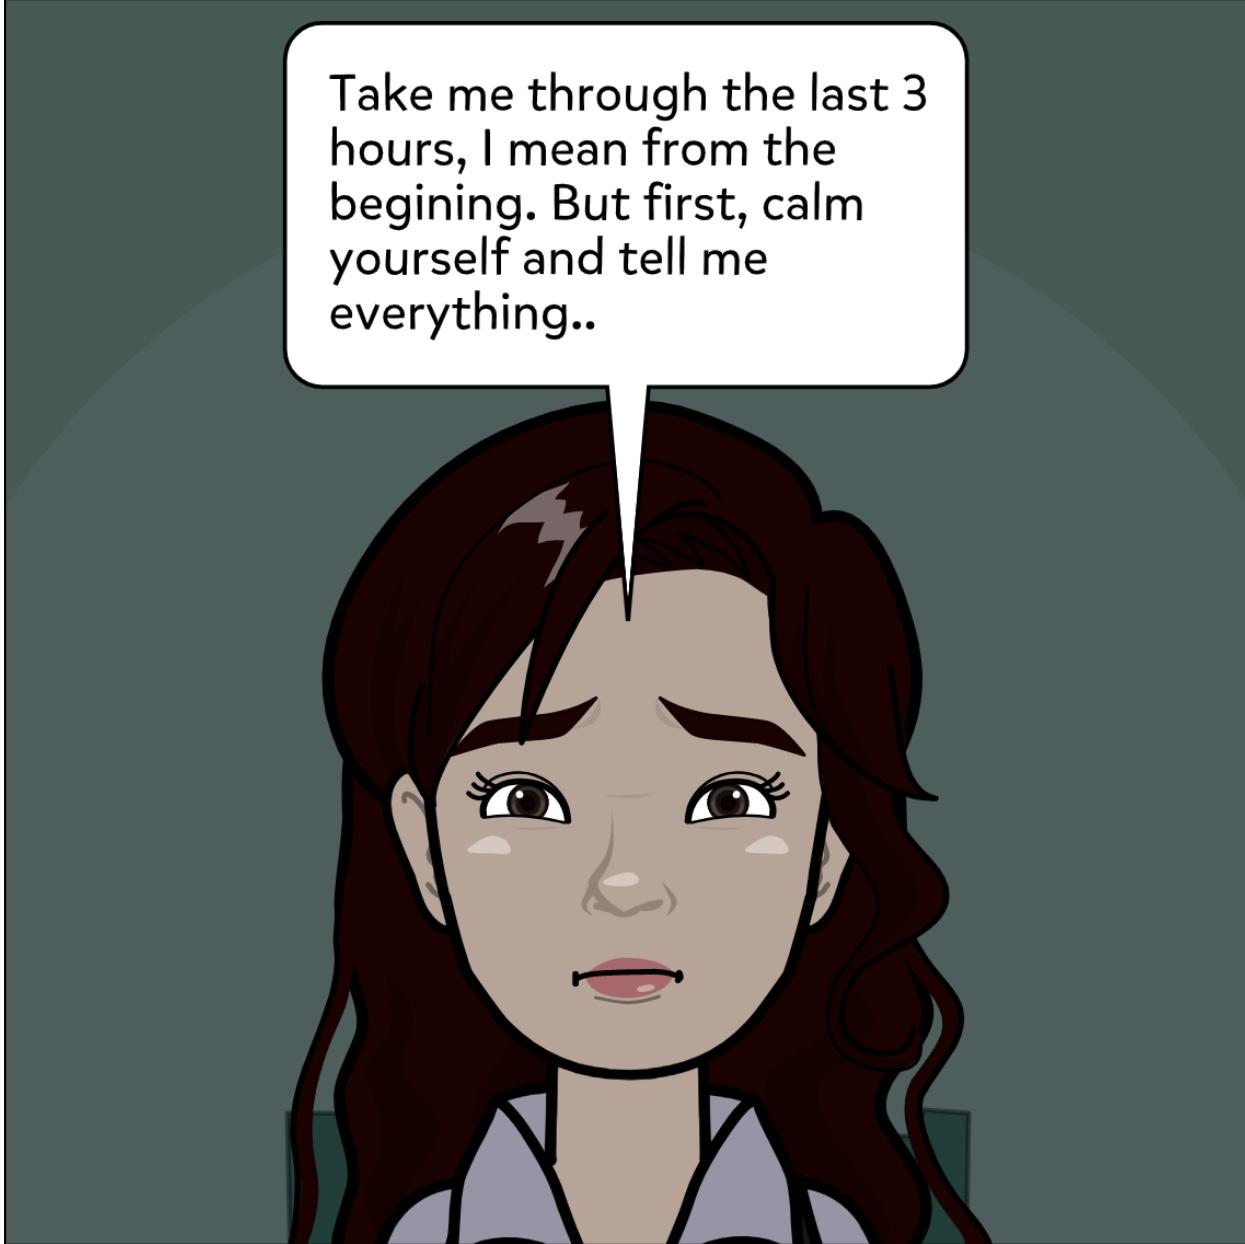

Footstep noise occurs

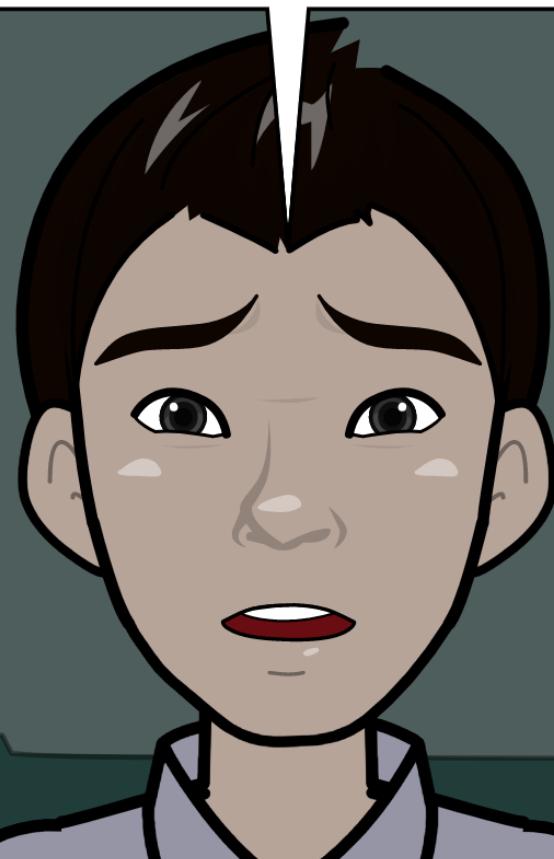

A dark room with three police officers and a woman on the floor. One officer in the center has a speech bubble above him.

Shhh!
What's that noise?

Take me through the last 3 hours, I mean from the begining. But first, calm yourself and tell me everything..

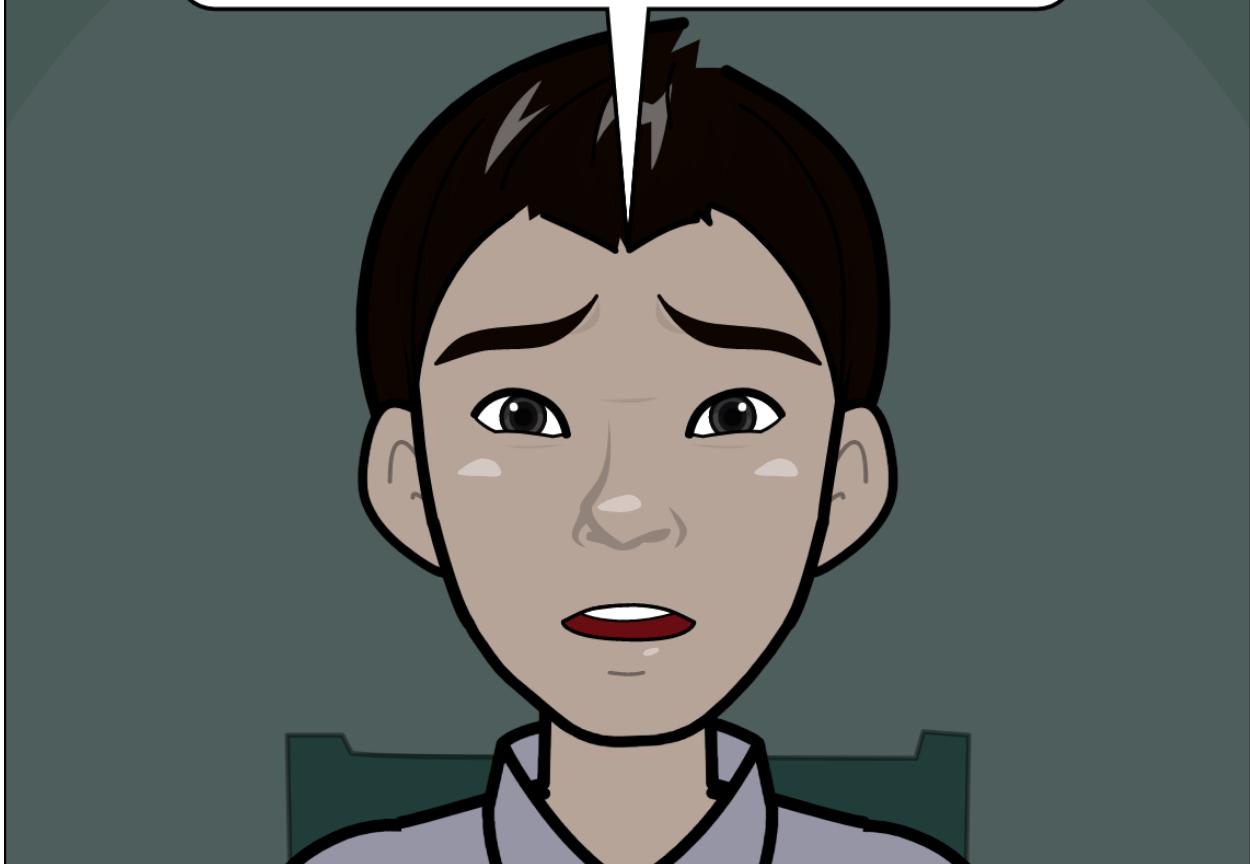

I came back to my home at 22:13 from work. The front door was locked when I arrived. Even I told rosie to open the door and she responded to that.

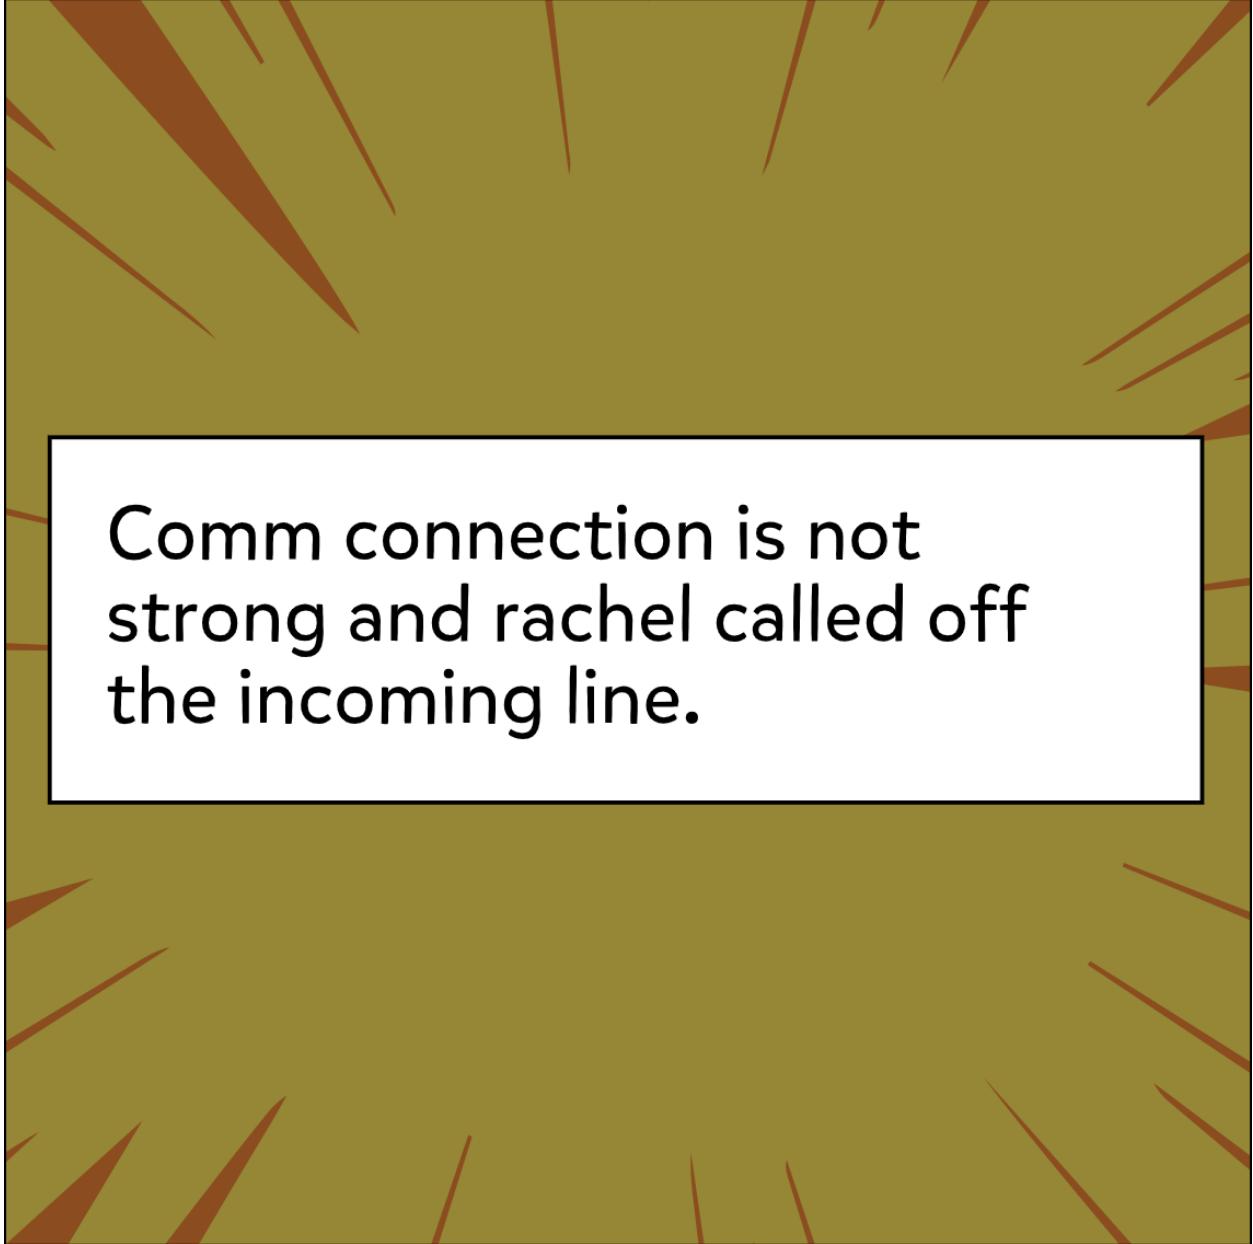

What
did she tell
you?

She said I am coming babe but when I was at the door it was still locked.. So I called again her to open door and she responded I have opened the door already. But it was locked

Excuse
me, sorry I am
getting a comm
here.. Hold on

Comm connection is not strong and rachel called off
the incoming line.

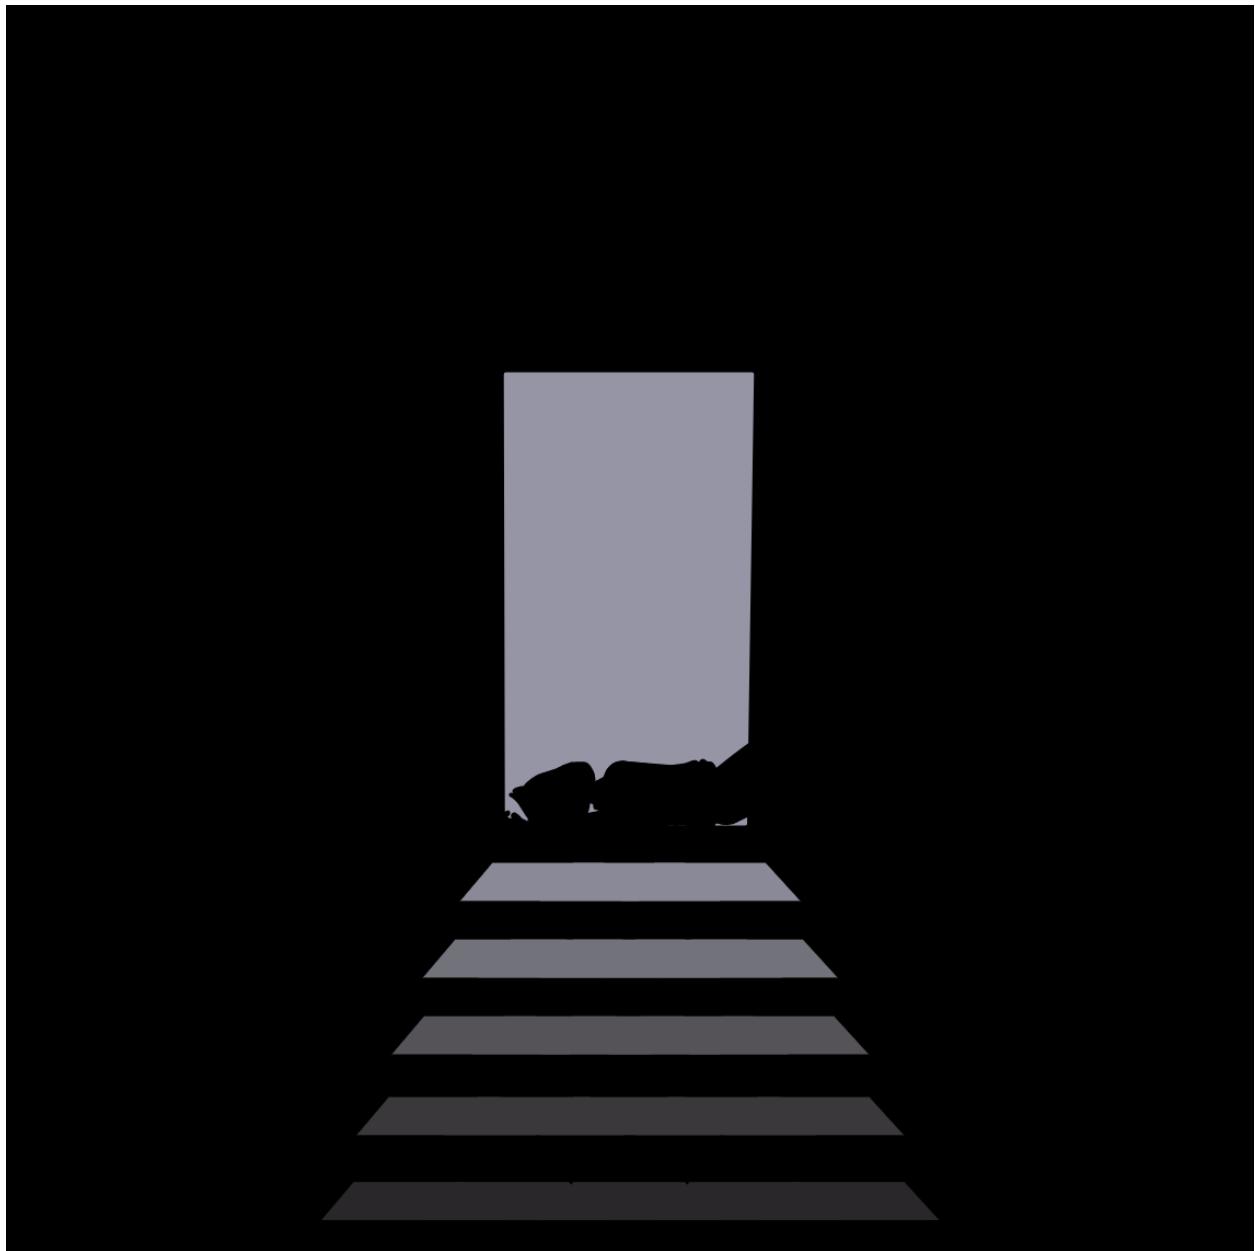

Sorry,
Please
continue.

There's
someone in the shadow

Go
ahead and check

Be
alert!

Rachel Incoming Call

How many times do I have to call you? What
